Director's Message

When I first arrived in Salisbury from Baltimore, a local theater group was auditioning for South Pacific. Although this theater group was not Community Players, many of the cast and crew were Community Players' members. I got the part of Buzz Adams, and, more importantly, I got the chance to meet some incredibly wonderful people. Many of them are still around today. I feel very lucky to know them and to share this art with them.

Composed by Richard Rodgers with book and lyrics by Oscar Hammerstein II, South Pacific has everything a musical should have: great characters, great songs, and a great story. Some of the messages in this story are light and amusing; others are profound and thought provoking. Its racial theme has provoked controversy, for which its authors were unapologetic.

Based on James A. Michener's 1947 book, Tales of the South Pacific, this musical premiered in 1949 on Broadway and was an immediate hit, running for 1,925 performances. It won 10 Tony Awards and the Pulitzer Prize for Drama. The show has enjoyed many successful revivals and tours.

Community Players first performed South Pacific in April 1969. You can find the original program in the archives at the Players' website. In that program the cast and crew hoped that the audience would be moved to tears and laughter when the armed forces of the United States meet the French and Polynesians of the South Pacific. Our cast and crew, almost 50 years later, wish the same for you.

We also recognize the veterans and their families, thanking them for their sacrifice and service. A silent auction is being held in the lobby and part of the proceeds will be donated to the local VFW. More than 100 businesses and individuals contributed to the silent auction. I thank them and encourage you to bid on one or more items to help support the cause.

I thank Phyllis Oldham, musical director, Maria Demetriou, choreographer and Bloody Mary, and the entire cast and crew of this production. Their dedication is greatly appreciated.

And, as always, I thank my wife, Bonnie, for her endless support and love.

Matt Bogdan

Tony Broadbent (Sound Coordinator) According to Tony, for a great production, you need great actors, singers, dancers and musicians to be on stage. There are also people that should stay a 100' away from the stage. For this show, Tony is running sound with the help of others. In all seriousness, Tony is happy to be part of this show. The great music, the great story that doesn't need special effects, and the timely message of the show made Tony want to be part of this production. Day to day, Tony helps with community events at the Wicomico Civic Center and free-lances doing sound and lighting for schools, weddings, and community events.

Judy Hearn (Scenic Artist) has been with Players since 2010, both onstage and backstage. Recent set work includes The Drowsy Chaperone, Into the Woods, Arsenic and Old Lace, Steel Magnolias, Mary Poppins, The Addams Family, On Golden Pond, The Odd Couple, They're Playing Our Song, The Mousetrap, Les Misérables, and Wizard of Oz. "Theatre is life!"

Ken Johnson (Set Construction/Lighting Design) began his "career" with Players over 35 years ago, running a follow spot for Don't Drink The Water. We haven't been able to get rid of him since! He is currently President of Players. Ken directed several productions for Players, recently The Addams Family and Into The Woods. Recently he appeared as Bert in Mary Poppins and Lumiere in Beauty and the Beast. Ken is also very active backstage, having designed and built the sets for over 50 Players' productions.

Bonnie Nay (Set Decorator) says that her most important job is wife of the director. She encouraged Matt to direct this show, as it is one of the first musicals she ever saw live on stage when she was 10. When she was growing up, she was involved in drama at her church and in middle school. She prefers the artistic and creative side of theatre and working "behind the scenes". In high school and college she worked on stage crew, prop design, and publicity for their shows. She is so excited to see this talented cast and crew bring the show to life.

Phyllis Oldham (Musical Director) taught vocal/choral music in Wicomico County for 37 years. Her choirs excelled at adjudicated choral festivals, and her Wi Hi Concert Choir performed at Carnegie Hall in 1997. She is one of the founders and past presidents and treasurers of the Eastern Shore Choral Directors' Association and continues to serve as an adjudicator and mentor. She has served as music director at Trinity United Methodist Church since 1972 and served as director of the Salisbury Chamber Singers since 2010. She proudly carries the legacy of her dear friend and beloved conductor, Douglas I. Smith. She has also done extensive work with the Salisbury Choral Society, Music ad Libitum, Eastern Shore Opera Society, Easton Choral Arts Society, Salisbury University, Magi Choral Festival, and many churches. A member of Players since 1972, Phyllis has served on the Board and held numerous committee positions, as well as director of shows such as Bells are Ringing, Fiddler on the Roof, and Les Misérables. She played Mother Abbess in The Sound of Music and Miss Hannigan in Annie. Honored to serve as musical director for South Pacific, she has faced some health issues and, regrettably, cannot conduct the gifted and special group of musicians during the show. She is most grateful to Ken Dasher for accepting the baton. She thanks Matt Bogdan for the invitation to do the show, Maria Demetriou for her inspired choreography, Bobbie Thamert and Pat Shaner for their help and advice, and David Lawson, who kept things going for everyone when she could not be there. Phyllis wishes for everyone to have a great time performing and enjoying this special piece of musical theatre history.

Alanna Phillips (Sound Team) has been part of the Sound Team for ten Players' shows and seven Salisbury School's shows. She is a member of Christ UM Church's Tech Team. She skates on the Salisbury Roller Derby team as "Big Booty Judy".

Jenny Tusing (Costume Design) is a longtime member of Players, Jenny only recently began designing costumes. It has been a whirlwind ever since with involvement in ten productions since 2014. Select credits include The Addams Family, Blythe Spirit, and Into the Woods. She has also shared her time costuming for The Salisbury School and the All-Wicomico County Musical. Costuming allows Jenny the flexibility to participate in theater while raising a young family. Jenny's performance credits include Little Women, Harvey, Charley's Aunt, and various musicals.
